Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement

June 1, 2023: The committee has been formed and met for committee training (including EDI training), and to prepare the posting. Mid-July, the posting for the next Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement will be posted, internal and external applications will be accepted. Campus visits are scheduled to take place early September with the goal to be completed by end of September.

August 17, 2023: The search committee met recently, and we will be proceeding with candidate visits and interviews for the following candidates:

- Manon Tremblay
  Senior Director, Indigenous Directions, Concordia University

- Melanie Griffith Brice
  Associate Professor, Faculty of Education, University of Regina; Gabriel Dumont Research Chair in Métis/Michif Education

- Angela Jaime
  Professor, Department of Indigenous Studies, College of Arts and Science and Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement (Interim), University of Saskatchewan

Copies of the candidate’s CVs will be available in the Provost and Vice-President Academic’s Office if you wish to view them. As part of the visit and interview process, the candidates have been invited to make a brief public presentation to the university community on the following topic: What do you see as the opportunities and challenges as the Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement? What would your first year in the position look like in relation to these opportunities and challenges? The 15 to 20-minute presentation will conclude with a Q and A session where attendees can pose questions to the candidate. All presentations will be recorded and available for viewing following the presentation. A link to the recording will be provided.

Dates have been confirmed for the candidate public presentations as follows:

- Manon Tremblay
  September 11th – 1:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.
  Administration C280/Green Room, Administration Building

- Melanie Griffith Brice
  September 13th – 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
  Convocation Hall, Peter MacKinnon Building

- Angela Jaime
  September 18th – 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
  Convocation Hall, Peter MacKinnon Building

Following completion of the presentations, you are invited to submit feedback on the candidates. All responses will be shared in their entirety and held within the confidence of the search committee. Your feedback to the committee via the chair is critical to our selecting the best leader for the university. Please submit comments by 4 p.m. on Thursday, September 28th. Submissions can be sent via email to brittney.zaleschuk@usask.ca.

On behalf of the search committee, I encourage you to attend the presentations and to participate in the search process for the new Vice-Provost, Indigenous Engagement. If you have any questions regarding the search process, please contact my office at 306-966-8454 or brittney.zaleschuk@usask.ca.
